SAVE START-UPS

Digital, Modern Entrepreneurship is your best chance!

Project SAVE Start-ups: Stimulating And Validating digital Entrepreneurship as the best way to increasing the quality of start-ups

Project number: 2019-1-PL01-KA202-065209

Industry 4.0 is expected to boost the productivity and value added of European industries and stimulate economic growth.

As part of its new Digital Single Market Strategy, the European Commission wants to help all industrial sectors exploit new technologies and manage a transition to a smart, Industry 4.0 industrial system.

It is obvious that following the path of the modern digital entrepreneurship is the best way to develop current and future business ventures!

If you are dreaming to start your own business venture or already have established one and need more knowledge, information and support, SAVE Start-ups project is here to help you.

Participating in the project and immersing into its' innovative training programme you will be able to improve and strengthen digital entrepreneurship competences and will have an opportunity to validate obtained knowledge.

“The project aim is to strengthen the quality of start-uppers, young entrepreneurs and VET providers and enhance their professional development through improving digital entrepreneurship competences as well as give them opportunity to validate these competences and adapt VET provision.”

The offered training course for start-uppers and young entrepreneurs comprises from 7 modules relevant to Industry 4.0:

1. 'Digital start-ups' vs 'Digital scale-ups',
2. Circular economy in your start-up,
3. Digital Lifestyle entrepreneurship,
4. Internet of Thing in entrepreneurial practice,
5. Infrastructures of sensors in daily business usage,
6. Analytics algorithms for customers Big Data,
7. Cybersecurity in your start-up.

All modules are freely attainable via progressive m-learning interface and can be used as single learning units or the whole training course, after successful completion of which you will be entitled to receive the Certificate!
